CURRY, KELLER, CARDS & CRUSTACEANS: A PEAK-EXPERIENCE POKER NIGHT

Imagine this... As the afternoon sun soaks the Napa Valley in golden light, a limo picks you and your three guests up at your luxury accommodations and makes its leisurely way 2,100 feet into the clouds to the summit of Atlas Peak, where John Schwartz welcomes you to his home at the spectacular Au Sommet wine estate. It's poker night. A professional dealer is there at the ready, and the game is Texas Hold 'Em, with one-of-a-kind prizes and some very special guests: Ayesha & Steph Curry and The French Laundry's Chef Thomas Keller.

To round out the experience, Chef Keller will curate a lavish New England lobster boil, paired with wines from the Domaine Curry collection and John's extensive personal cellar.

You'll also take home a 5L 2015 signed and etched bottle of Domaine Curry Cabernet Sauvignon and a 3L bottle of 2016 Screaming Eagle 'The Flight', one of the most celebrated cult wines in the Napa Valley, and your name (one person) will be added to the coveted Screaming Eagle mailing list.

And at times like that, you've got to bid like a baller.
